

PUBLIC SALE OF HERNDON FARM.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Kentucky.

IN THE MATTER OF SUSAN D. HERNDON, BANKRUPT.

Notice of Sale in Bankruptcy.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale, rendered in the above entitled matter, the undersigned as Trustee of the estate of the above named bankrupt will, on

MONDAY, JUNE 3RD 1901,

(it being Court day) between the hours of 11 o'clock a.m. and 2 o'clock p.m., at the Court House door in Hopkinsville, Ky., offer and sell to the highest and best bidder, the following described real estate belonging to the estate of the above named bankrupt:

A large and valuable farm situated at Kennedy, in the Southern part of Christian county, Ky., containing 578 acres and being the same land upon which Mrs. Susan D. Herndon now lives.

This land will be sold in parcels and as a whole and the bid bringing the most money will be accepted and the purchaser of lot No. 1 will be given the option of taking the timbered lot No. 4 at the same price.

Privilege will be given to the purchaser to sow a crop of wheat this fall and full possession given January 1, 1902.

TERMS:

This property will be sold for one-third cash, balance on one and two years' time of equal payments. The purchaser will be required to execute bonds for the deferred payments, payable to the undersigned, with good and approved security and retaining a lien upon the land sold to secure their payment and bearing interest from date until paid, at the rate of (6 per cent.) six per centum per annum, and having the force and effect of a judgment upon which execution may issue if not paid at maturity.

OPTION.

The purchaser will be given the option to pay the entire purchase price of said land in cash if he desires.

PLANTERS' BANK AND TRUST COMPANY,

Trustee in Bankruptcy of the Estate of Mrs. Susan D. Herndon, Bankrupt.

The accompanying is a plot of the land as divided.

Sale Between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.,

June 3, 1901.

WEDS AN INDIAN GIRL.

Cincinnati Traveling Man Marries the Pretty Daughter of a Chief.

A marriage license was issued at Kansas City, Mo., the other day to a traveling man and the daughter of an Indian Chief who is worth $25,000 in her own right. She is not a wrinkled up old squaw either, but a bright, pretty young girl who is just as up-to-date as the average American girl. The groom is Elwood Green, of Cincinnati, O., 35 years old representing a saddlery house of that city. The bride is Evelyn Beaver, of Miami, I. T., and is 23 years old, the daughter of William Beaver, chief of one of the smaller tribes.

The couple drove up to the court house in a carriage lavishly decked with white ribbons and old shoes. Both the contracting parties wore buttonhole bouquets. Attached to the doorhandles of the carriage on either side was a bunch of white ribbon. Tied to the hind axle were two shoes, one a man's and the other a woman's. Neither the bride, groom nor the hackman appeared to pay any attention to these decorations. A crowd followed the carriage to the court-house where the couple were married by one of the circuit judges.

TEACHER WEDS HER PUPIL.

Lady of Thirty-Eight Weds a Boy of Eighteen Years.

Miss Agnes McCall a teacher in the Allegheny, Pa., public school, was married recently to one of her pupils, and has just submitted her resignation. Frederick Taylor, 18 years old, son of superintendent Taylor, of the Pittsburgh locomotive works is the bridegroom. They were wedded in Washington, D. C. The bride resided with her parents until about three months ago, when she moved to Crafton, where she is now living with her husband. The bride is 38 years old. Miss McCall had been able to control young Taylor better than any of his other teachers and his parents had often marveled thereat.

Band Benefit.

Our new military band will put up a good show next Friday night at Holland's Opera House. The program will be mainly of good music, spiced with fun, and we predict that the house will be filled. The city ought to have and maintain a good band, and in this way you can help it along and at the same time get the worth of your money. The proceeds of this entertainment will go for uniforms, music and band room. The instruments, twenty-two in number have all been paid for by the boys without asking public aid. Now they want to earn the money to go further. Sale of seats begun yesterday at Armistead's drug store, and they are going rapidly. Price 50 cents, no extra charge for reserve seats. Gallery 25 cents.

ANNUAL RE-UNION

Of United Confederate Veterans.

Account of above occasion the Illinois Central R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Memphis on May 25th, 26th and 27th, limited to June 4th for return, at rate of $4.70. An extension of return limit to June 19th may be obtained by depositing ticket with Joint Agent at Memphis, between May 28th and June 3rd, and upon payment of fee of 50 cents.

GOEBEL CASES CONTINUED.

Davis, Whitaker and Combs Cases Go Over on Account of Illness of Counsel for Defense.

Georgetown, Ky., May 7.—In the Circuit Court here the cases against John W. Davis, Harlan Whitaker and "Tallow Dick" Combs, charged with complicity in the murder of Gov. Wm. Goebel, were continued by agreement, ex-Gov. Brown and the wife of Judge Sims, principal counsel for the defense, being ill.

Dr. McCormack Robbed.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 9.—Burglars entered the home of Dr. J. N. McCormack, secretary of the state board of health, and stole a gold watch and chain.

Illinois Central R. R. REDUCED RATES

ACCOUNT OF

GOOD ROADS CONVENTIONS

to be held on dates and at places as follows:

New Orleans, April 29 and 30.
Orford, Miss., June 3 and 4.
Grenada, Miss., June 5 and 6.

McComb City and Summit, Miss., June 10 and 11.
Jackson, Miss. (State) June 14 and 15.
Jackson, Tenn., June 21 and 22.

The conventions are to be held for the purpose of creating an interest in good roads as a vital aid to the upbuilding of a community, and in connection with them a practical demonstration of the proper building of a road will be made by the National Good Roads Association. Representatives of that association will be present with expert engineers, skilled laborers, and the Illinois Central Good Roads Train, equipped with all forms of special road machinery, and will be building during the convention a piece of road according to the latest approved methods, showing particularly the best results possible with the material at hand in a given locality.

Believing that universal interest should be felt in this movement, there will be made on account of it a rate of

One Fare For The Round Trip to each of the above named convention cities from certain points south of Cairo on the Illinois Central Railroad, and full information concerning which, as well as of dates of sale, limits and specific rates, can be obtained of your local ticket agent.
